

Pensions For All

Monday 27th April, 11.45am - 2.00pm
Leeds Chamber, White Rose House, Leeds
LS1 2EZ
FREE event

As an employer, you are required by law to offer your employees access to a pension scheme. But are you aware of the different options available to your company?

As an employee, retirement might still seem like a lifetime away. Plus combined with the current economic climate, starting a pension may be the last thing on your mind. But as you could end up spending more than 30 years in retirement, it's never too early to start making necessary plans to ensure you maximise on your pension fund.

This seminar will provide you with the ideal opportunity to find out more about pension provision. You will hear from experts about the benefits of pension savings for businesses and their employees, and will gain practical and useful information about future pension investments.
